ORIGIN

1. Verbal instructions for dissemination by heads of Communist cells in the city and province of Buenos Aires have been given as follows:

(a) Intensify all labor union claims, mingling with Peronists elements and even cheering Peron.

(b) Decry the evils of imperialism, presenting it as opposed to the economic interests of the country and therefore a threat to national sovereignty.

(c) Participate in all activities organized by the Confederacion General del Trabajo, and in those which express support of the government for its work in defense of labor.

(d) Intensify the campaign against the high cost of living, taking advantage of the Junta Pro Mejoramiento Social, several of whose directors, including the Secretary General, Angel Ortelli, are affiliated with the Communist Party.

(e) Show no insignia or banners at public gatherings that are not strictly Argentine in character, and be careful to make no outcries that might cause suspicion or reprisals.
